DIRECTIONS TO ROCKY NECK

To get to Rocky Neck, drive northeast on route 128 to Gloucester. Go through two rotaries, staying on 128. Then go straight, through two traffic lights, and up the hill onto East Main Street. Stay on East Main for about a mile, bearing right at the bottom of the hill, and follow East Main as it curves around the harbor. Many artists and businesses are located along East Main in the East Gloucester Arts District. Turn right onto Rocky Neck Avenue, park in the public parking lot, and explore the many shops and galleries on the Neck.

Rocky Neck ART COLONY

PO Box 60 Gloucester, MA 01931 www.rockyneckartcolony.org

ROCKY NECK ART COLONY

Rocky Neck is a picturesque artists' community that overlooks Gloucester harbor. It began as an isolated sheep pasture and eventually became a hub of maritime industry, centered on the famed Tarr & Wonson Copper Paint Manufactory. Artists began flocking to this scenic locale in the 1890s, creating one of the oldest continually operating artist colonies in the nation. A great many American artists of note painted on Rocky Neck, among them Fitz Henry Lane, Winslow Homer, Frank Duveneck, Childe Hassam, Jane Peterson, Edward Hopper, Stuart Davis and Milton Avery.

Today dozens of working artists display their work in Rocky Neck galleries and studios during the summer months. A variety of restaurants are available to suit every taste from down-home cooking to gourmet cuisine. Live entertainment enhances the ambiance in restaurants and bars on weekends and on the first Thursday of each month, from June to September. Rocky Neck offers an eclectic mixture of history and culture – a great place to stroll on a lazy summer day, to include in a day trip to the beach, or to enjoy a memorable meal.

ROCKY NECK HISTORIC ART TRAIL

By mapping the sites where they worked, lived, and became inspired, the Rocky Neck Historic Art Trail enables you to walk in the footsteps of Winslow Homer, Fitz Henry Lane, Marsden Hartley, Edward Hopper, and a host of other pioneering American artists. See first-hand the iconic land and seascapes that gave rise to their illustrious artistic output. Go to www.RockyNeckArtTrail.org to begin your journey, or read about the lives of these famous artists in Judith Curtis' fully illustrated 160-page book, Rocky Neck Art Colony, 1850-1950, available at the Rocky Neck Gallery and Cape Ann bookstores.

NIGHTS ON THE NECK

From June to September, celebrate Nights on the Neck on the first Thursday of the month from 5 to 9 pm. Many galleries host receptions with refreshments, and musicians, dancers, authors, historians and other entertainers give performances and lectures.

GOETEMANN RESIDENCY AT ROCKY NECK

Three talented artists have been selected from a national pool of applicants to live and work for one month each in the Goetemann Residency Studio 51A Rocky Neck Ave. A distinguished artist/teacher will join us for a week and provide critiques and workshops. Both the residents and the artist/teacher will give talks and host discussions for the community.

BEAUX ARTS BALL

The annual Beaux Arts Ball is an evening of costumery, great food, dancing, prizes, friendly company, and a silent auction. It will be held this year on Thursday, August 12 at the Studio Restaurant, 51 Rocky Neck Ave. The theme is Dudes & Divas. See rockyneckartcolony.org/ball.html for more information.
